

August 15, Tuesday: Independence Day

The day was celebrated with aplomb as the President of the Society hoisted the tri colour to the accompaniment of the national anthem sung delightfully by the Assembly.

Thee Choristers sang a poignant patriotic song to set the spirit with the signature tune for the day. Speeches were rendered in English, Hindi and a nazm in Urdu was recited. Two skits were enacted, one was on the life and times of Rishi Aurobindo, titled, "Nirjan Karawas'. There was a dance recital too, and towards the end the President addressed the Assembly, spoke at length on the sacrifices and the zeal with which our leaders fought for freedom. And the duties and liabilities of every citizen on this present day is to preserve the dignity and integrity of the Nation.

August 15, Tuesday: Independence Day (64, Station Road)

The Kangaroo kids at 64 Station Road did not fall behind in celebrating independence day joyfully and with reverence for their country. Their enthusiasm was stark as they participated in the Flag hoisting with their respected and loving President Sir and put up a show that really won everybody's heart. The importance of the day found meaning in their joyful celebration and the spirit of patriotism was evident through their happiness and innocence. They sang the National Anthem fervently and looked every moment the patriotic little citizens of a great country.

August 19, Saturday Red House Day,

In the memory of Rabindranath Tagore, the Patron of Red House. The Programme started with lighting of the lamp and garlanding the portrait of the Bard to mark the day. The choir sang a melodious song penned by the Poet. Anshika Jain delivered the Speech in English and Sakshi Shukla delivered her speech in Hindi. Red House members performed a skit based on the play Kabuliwala by the Playwright.

Children performed two dance recitals, based on songs penned by the Poet and danced in tune and rhythm to that propounded by the Poet.

Ms Zoya Karim Khan, Member Governing Body Rafi-Kaneez Memorial Education Society was the Special Guest for the occasion. She spoke briefly on the day's performance and praised the performers for their dance and song recitals and play acting and the skillful oratory by the members of the Red House

It was a very colourful and meaningful programme enjoyed by all present. Well done Red House!

